11AM to 7PM

The 2009 Culture Fair is dedicated to Lonnie Thomas (Sagooha) and Carolyn Sue Clark (Seeteenaxh), two inspiring, devoted, hardworking Seattle delegates who walked into the forest this past year. We remember them with gratitude and love.

Children's Activities

Saturday morning there will be activity tables for children of all ages. All activities have Native themes and projects are designed to be completed and taken home. Beading, coloring, stamping and more! Adults are welcome to accompany their little ones and give them a hand when needed. Well known storyteller and writer, Pamela Huteson, will be telling Native stories at 9:30, 10:30 and 11:30 AM. Odin Lonning will host a Native art appreciation station.

Saturday afternoon Gene Tagaban, singer, actor, musician, storyteller will host a session for children designed to entertain, engage and instruct.

Sunday morning Jack Strong invites all the children who want to participate in a dance group to join him for a fun lesson that will end in a performance to remember.

Volunteers Step Right Up

We need your help. If you can give us a hand either Saturday or Sunday, contact LaVerne Wise at 206.834.4001, lavernew@sihb.org. Gunalchéesh, Háw'aa, Doyck-Shin.

Thank you to our sponsors: Central Council Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska, the Muckleshoot Tribe, the Suquamish Tribe, Sealaska Corporation, Spirit Walk, and the Potlatch Fund. Gunalchéesh, Háw'aa, 'Doyck-Shin.

AIWSL 50th Anniversary Dinner Invitation

The American Indian Women's Service League will host a special dinner for Culture Fair participants on Saturday, September 12th at 6:00PM to commemorate their 50th Anniversary. Many of our mothers, aunts and grandmothers belonged to the Service League. They founded the Seattle Indian Center, United Indians of All Tribes, the Seattle Indian Health Board and other organizations that continue to serve our community. It is an honor to celebrate this happy occasion with them. The dinner will be held in the cafeteria following the workshops.

Raffle Grand Prize 2 Round Trip Tickets on Alaska Airlines

In addition to the airline tickets the committee has been busy gathering other great items for this year's raffle. If you would like to make a donation, contact Roger Wise forthson@gmail.com. Tickets are available from Tlingit & Haida delegates, officers and Culture Fair committee members.

Looking for Buttons?

See the Button Guy, Gary Waid, at the "button table". Gary is a story-teller, performer and writer from Juneau.

Tribal ID Cards

Tlingit & Haida Central Council staff will be present Saturday and Sunday to make tribal photo ID cards for enrolled members. Photo ID is required.

Sealaska Shareholder Services Available

Sealaska Corporation will provide shareholder services Saturday and Sunday.
