

Executive Council Meeting
October 24, 2005
Appendix A

Good of the Order

Thomas Farquhar was reelected as treasurer at the last ITMA meeting.

Thomas Farquhar would like to request in lieu of an Anchorage delegate dinner during AFN that a donation be made to the Anchorage T&H Chapter for their annual Thanksgiving celebration.

Millie Stevens expressed her opinion of CCTHITA and how proud she is when complaints are dealt with. She is honored and proud to be part of the Council, and that we work together even though we do not always agree. Also noted that she does not agree with the NCAI method of voting, and feels it is a waste of time.

Liv Gray apologized for not being part of the meeting physically. She appreciates and strives to be an active and contributing member. She congratulated the new 6th Vice President Michele Metz on her new post. CCTHITA's first elected student representative Dennis Gray, Liv's son, was just recently elected as Mayor of Hoonah.

Fred Lauth is proud to be here. His group in Seattle has been working hard to bring themselves into the 21st century. A Community needs assessment was done and they are looking at setting up a bookkeeping system.

Michele Metz thanked everyone and is happy to be here.

President Thomas also congratulated Michele, and noted that Judy George would have agreed with the decision. He thanked Ashli for setting up the meeting, she did it on her own due to everyone traveling.

Jordan Skan, student rep, apologized for being late to the meeting due to school necessities.
